MUSEUM NEWS

E-mail message from the NCM:

“It is with bittersweet emotions that I am announcing Sharon Brawner has decided to move on from her role as President and CEO of the National Corvette Museum. We thank Sharon for her many contributions over the past two and half years, which include reimaging our exhibit galleries, growing our collection, and increasing investments in Museum facilities. In the short term, the National Corvette Museum Board will assume the duties of President and CEO during this time of transition, with Bryce Burklow serving as interim Chief Operating Officer.

Thank you for your support of the National Corvette Museum

Community Service

I apologize for not getting a January article into the Under Glass last month. Therefore, I hope everyone had a good New Year's Eve and Day. I know Gary and I sure did. With that being said, I am wishing all of you a Happy 2024 even though it is a little late.

All of the Christmas gifts were delivered to the FRS and the Soldier's Home on Tuesday, December 19th, 2023. Family Renewal Shelter was delivered in the a.m. and Soldier's Home in the afternoon. They were both very excited and appreciative of all the gifts and the beautiful wrapping. I personally want to thank all of you for stepping up to make Christmas very special for families and veterans again this year.

We collected $210.00 at the November 11th meeting. I did not send the Zebra Box around at the December Gala/meeting. The Zebra Box did go around at the January 13th meeting. We collected $155.00 which has been delivered to Family Renewal Shelter.

We received a thank you from the Family Renewal Shelter dated November 14, 2023 and also a Christmas Card dated December 12th. They will both be shown in the newsletter.

Thank you all again for the donations in 2023 and the Christmas gifts. Looking forward to another year of great donations.

Dear Friends,

Have you ever imagined what it's like to be on the run, looking over your shoulder, wondering if you have been spotted, afraid to go certain places or jumping at the sound of a car, doorbell or phone? That's the place we meet most of the women who come to us for help. They have just escaped a violent relationship after hearing threats of being hunted down, never being able to hide and if found seriously hurt or killed.

When Kimberly came to us with her children, she exhibited all the signs of fear and lack of hope we see too often. She had lived on the edge for so long that she had a hard time transitioning from her hyper-vigilant state. It's hard to make good decisions and problem solve in that kind of survival mode. After we helped her to relocate with her children, she told us that the pain that she had experienced was becoming a memory.

On your behalf we are privileged to help heroic women like Kimberly begin to come out of the shadows into the light of a new life. To begin to dream and plan for a life that they had imagined for themselves and their children.

Right now is the time to catch our breath and take another deep breath in anticipation of the upcoming holidays and year end rush that happens to us (and you?) each year. Summer and fall were a blur with construction, maintenance at our facilities, as well as the ongoing receiving, stabilizing and moving the many families who came to us in need. We have seen many precious lives renewed which is truly our bottom line.

It is always good as Thanksgiving approaches to remember the blessings that we have experienced this year. Suffice it to say, we are so very grateful for your generosity and support. Your gifts of $241.00 in September & $208.00 in October of 2023 will play a crucial role in our very specific ministry of reaching out to those domestic violence victims and their children whose very lives are in danger.

God's blessings to you all,

~~Keith~~ + all
